

10th November 1979: The Rainbow Theatre, London
On tour with the Buzzcocks

This was the final date of the Buzzcocks tour and this time the sound quality was "immaculately sharp". (Well, if this is true it's a darn shame there isn't a better quality live tape around.....)

Apparently Joy Division were in high spirits and marked the end of the tour by dumping fishing maggots on the sound and lighting desks, spraying the crew with shaving foam, putting live mice through the windows of the tour vans, and bombarding the crew with eggs before finally being chased off by a passing police car.
